

General Enforcement Workshop (90 min)

Georgie Ward is conducting this virtual enforcement workshop designed specifically for Local Government Enforcement Officers.

The workshop will focus on improving investigative techniques as well as discussing the key principles and skills required for officers to properly discharge their duties.

All officers, regardless of their experience or area of expertise, will benefit from this workshop which will better equip attendees to confidently and successfully undertake enforcement duties.

The following topics will be addressed –

- The role and responsibility of authorised officers in Local Government;
- Enforcement tools and exercising officer discretion appropriately;
- Potential areas of exposure;
- Conducting investigations and gathering of evidence;
- Admissibility of evidence;
- Compiling an effective brief of evidence; and
- Prosecution proceedings in the Magistrates' Court.
